

RTE Food Packaging Seminar

UV & EB-Printing for Food Packaging

Sponsor possibilities

– for RTE member companies only –

Give your company more exposure during this industry event!

This seminar will be the ninth in a series of events dedicated to the topic. The goal of the event is to provide insight and guidance on all aspects of the use of radiation curing technology for food packaging. The seminar will again cover the entire chain, from raw material manufacturers to converters and brand-owners, as well as regulatory authorities.

RadTech Europe member companies can make use of the Business-to-Business Marketing Opportunities during the RTE Food Packaging Seminar 2018. The sponsorship possibilities are a unique way to increase your company's visibility and to reach your customers directly.

Host the seminar materials

Lanyards € 600,- + provision of lanyards

Your company name can be visible throughout the seminar by sponsoring the lanyards that are distributed at the RadTech Europe registration counter to all attendees who attend the seminar.

Pens € 400,- + provision of pens

Make a statement by sponsoring the seminar pens. Supply the pens seminar attendees will use in the meeting room, all throughout the event and back in the office. Display your company name prominently on the pens for all attendees to see!

Portfolios € 400,- + provision of portfolios

A portfolio, filled with important information on the seminar, will be distributed to all attendees and used throughout the entire event. Branding these portfolios as an exclusive sponsor will put your company logo in focus at all times.

Notepads € 400,- + provision of notepads

As exclusive sponsor you provide branded seminar notepads to be distributed to all attendees. This exclusive sponsorship guarantees optimal exposure!

Please note: For pens, lanyards, notepads, and portfolios, the organizer will not take care of the production for you. All materials must be sent to the venue directly and must be delivered before Wednesday 22 October 2018.

Host the seminar catering

Lunch € 500,-

The lunch will be provided to all the attendees. Your sponsorship will be acknowledged on-site with printouts. In addition, you are welcome to bring your own banners (max two) which will be displayed in the lunch area.

Coffee breaks € 500,-

Two coffee breaks will be provided to all the attendees. Your sponsorship will be acknowledged on-site with printouts. In addition, you are welcome to bring your own banners (max two) which will be displayed in the break out area.
